five years from 1935-36 on a rental of Rs 5-8-0 per year and the quit rent realised is being credited to the Govt. Reg. Fund.

(2) Sri Kasi Viswesvara Swami Temple at Tiruvur in Mannargudi Taluk which is in receipt of a cash grant of Rs 4-8-0 has also been declared defunct in November 1936, as the institution was not working for a very long time.

(3) Lastly, Sri Sankaranarayana Swami Temple at Puttur, Nannilam was also declared as defunct in April 1934 and the balance at the credit of the institution Rs 32-1-5 was credited to the Govt. Religious Fund. But the idol is supposed to have been consecrated by the pattadar Sri Varadaraja Swami residing at Puttur, and installed in the Sri Someshwaraswami Temple built by him at a cost of Rs 40,000/- and also is maintaining the village maniyam consisting about 17 acres and 25 cents.

(4) The Swamigal of the Sri Kumbakonam Mutt has now represented that the income derived from lands endowed to the Sri Someshwaraswami Temple is insufficient to maintain both the temple and the land granted to Sri Kasi Viswesvara Swami Temple and the cash grant of Rs 4-8-0 with Temple at Tiruvur may be discontinued.

to the Sri Lanka Government Gazette which is proposed to be taken by the public. It is further noted that the two defunct institutions at Hamsa and Tagar belong to the same persuasion as the institution at Lattur.

(2) So far as the Sri Shan Karavarajara Swami Temple at Lattur to which the assessed land and cash grants with other two defunct Mayyal institutions are proposed to be transferred, it may be noted that this institution has been reported to have been declared defunct in April 1934 by the Mayyal Sub Division Officer. An institution to be declared defunct must be a Mayyal one, not working at all and it is only an institution that is enjoying land or cash grant or both, endowed by kings and under their control, that can be termed as a Mayyal institution. In this case it is not quite clear whether the temple at Lattur was endowed with any such grant. If it were not so endowed, how it became a Mayyal institution is not known and if here the Mayyal (Chavagacheri) Officer declared such an institution as a defunct one was have to be ascertained.

Transfer of Muzrai grants of Defunct Institutions in Madras

Inf. File No. 368 of 193 8 | General and Revenue Secretariat

(4) Reference is invited to Rules 3 and 4 of the Rules contained in pages 236-238 of the Muzrai Manual (1934) regarding Defunct Muzrai Institutions. The Temple in question is stated to be open to the public but it is not known if it is supported by any endowments private or public, and it is therefore doubtful whether it satisfies fully the condition in para 5 of the rules relating to Defunct Muzrai institutions. (Vide page 238 of the Muzrai Manual) Subject for orders.

5 The institutions seem to be of the same denomination & consequently the transfer of lands & cash granted to Sri Sankara Mandapam as well temple would be in order. The M.O. is returned herewith.

sufficient to maintain both the temples and that the Grant of land and Cash inams of the two defunct Institutions noted above may be given to this Institution which has been constructed at his own cost of nearly Rs.8,000/-. It is also stated that the Institution is open to the Public and that the defunct Institutions whose land and Cash grants are proposed to be transferred belong to the same persuasion as this Institution.

3) In recommending the transfer of the grants, the Deputy Commissioner has stated that he has seen the Temple, the building of which should have costed a considerable sum.

4) As the transfer of the grants recommended relates to a defunct Institution since revived, I request that sanction of Government may be kindly obtained to the recommendation of the Deputy Commissioner for the grant of the inam land and Cash grant noted above to the Sri Sankaranarayanaswami Temple at Suthur.

5) The two files of records received with the Deputy Commissioner's letter are enclosed for reference and kind return.

Letter No. C. 1557/36-39 dated the 16th [illegible] Inam Commissioner in Mysore requesting sanction for the transfer of the inam land of Sri Ananta Swami Gudi (the deity) in Somma in Chamarajanagar Taluk and the cash grant of Rs. [illegible] annum which was being paid to Sri Raghavendra Swami Gudi, Somma in Nanjangud Taluk, which is also declared deserted, to the Venkataramanaraya Swami Gudi at Kabbur in Nanjangud Taluk.

Dated, Bangalore, the [illegible] 21 .

Sri Ananta Swami Gudi at Somma in Chamarajanagar Taluk has been declared deserted by the Inam Commissioner in his letter read above and it is understood that the land belonging to the Gudi is being cultivated by the Pujari. The Inam Commissioner has therefore requested that the cash grant of Rs. [illegible] annum which is being paid to the Gudi may be transferred to the Venkataramanaraya Swami Gudi at Kabbur in Nanjangud Taluk which has also been declared deserted by the [illegible] Officer in view of the proximity of the two Gudis, the one at Somma being situated in the interior of the village and the other at Kabbur being situated on the bank of the river Kabini and the arrangements for the daily worship of the deity can be more easily given to the latter. Sri Venkataramanaraya Swami Gudi at Kabbur in Nanjangud Taluk was also declared deserted by the Inam Officer in April 1936 and [illegible] tion vide, Rs. 3-0-0 was ordered [illegible] Inam land. It is now reported that the idol of Sri Venkataramanaraya Swami was since consecrated by the [illegible]

Sivaratri Swamigalu of Suttur, when he built the Sri Someswara-swami Temple at the place. The said Swamigalu who has arranged for the conduct of worship in these temples has represented that the income derived from the Inam lands endowed to the Sri Someswaraswami Temple is not sufficient to maintain both the temples and has requested that the Inam land and cash grant of the first two defunct institutions may be given to the above institution which has been consecrated by him at the cost of nearly Rs. 2,00,000/-. The Board on inquiry finds that the institutions is open to the public and that the Inam lands and cash grants are proposed to be transferred belong to the same Dharmakarta as the Sri Someswaraswami Temple and records that the lands and cash grant of the defunct institutions may be transferred to Sri Someswaraswami Temple.

In the circumstances, the recommendation of the Joint Commissioner is accepted.
